Purpose:

The course will enable students to explore important moral issues. To that end, a historical overview of the development of Christian Ethics will be given and the relevant moral issues of our time will be explored from a theological perspective.

Required Texts:

Wogaman, Phillip J., Christian Ethics: a Historical Introduction (Louisville, KY: Westminster/John Knox Press, 1993 or 2011), 0664234097.

Wogaman, Phillip J. and Strong, Douglas M., editors, Readings in Christian Ethics: a Historical Sourcebook (Louisville, KY: Westminster/John Knox Press, 1996), 0664255744.

Requirements:

Every student will submit an argument paper, 15-20 pages long. The thesis should be approved by the instructor. In addition, students are expected to do a presentation on their argument and contribute to class discussions.
