

Redland Baptist Church
6922 Muncaster Mill Road, Derwood, MD 20855

Position Description
Interim Pastor

The Interim Pastor will be primarily responsible for the delivery of two Sunday sermons per week during the interim period until the Pastoral Search Committee recommends and the congregation calls a new Pastor to Redland Baptist Church (RBC). This may include other ministerial duties as outlined below in the "Responsibilities" segment of the position description, subject to discussions between the candidate and RBC pastoral staff.

Qualifications:

The ideal candidate will have at least five (5) years of experience in pastoral positions or will have a formal education in theology and Biblical studies from an accredited institution; to have practical experience in preaching, counseling, and teaching; and to be proficient in office productivity software. The candidate will not be considered for the current pastoral vacancy.

Responsibilities:

The Interim Pastor will primarily be responsible for the following:

- Preaching at two RBC worship services on Sunday mornings, a minimum of three times a month

Other responsibilities may include:

- Leading a pastoral Wednesday night prayer meeting/Bible study
- Working with RBC's pastoral staff to ensure the training, advising, and equipping of the saints
- Preparing occasional articles for RBC's Grace Connection newsletter

Term of Service:

The Interim Pastor position will expire once the congregation of Redland Baptist Church has voted on and appointed a new Pastor.

Compensation:

TBD